JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
Brookings Tenth Administration of Justice Seminar
Annapolis, Maryland
5 February 1988

Senior Staff Member of Brookings Institution, Warren Cikins, has invited you to speak at Brookings Tenth Administration of Justice Seminar on Friday, 5 February in Annapolis, Maryland. Judge Sessions was invited to speak on the same panel concerning the FBI, and he has accepted the invitation. The suggested format is for both you and Judge Sessions to each give 20-25 minutes of remarks followed by 20-25 minutes of discussion. The panel would begin at 3:15 p.m. and adjourn at approximately 4:30 p.m. You are requested to speak on "Reflections on the Judiciary from the Vantage Point of the CIA." You could expect an audience of 75 senior staff members of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees, the Justice Department, and the Supreme Court as well as the Administrative Offices of the courts, the Federal Judicial Center, and representatives from several universities and research institutions.

Since you spoke to the Brookings Institution in November albeit in a different forum, I recommend that you not accept another invitation so soon. In his presentation, Judge Sessions will talk about developing public trust through informing the public. Since that topic is similar to your own, I do not think it is necessary for you to participate. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Mr. Cikins:

Thank you for your invitation to speak at the Brookings Tenth Administration of Justice Seminar on February 5th in Annapolis. Unfortunately my schedule is heavily committed and I must decline the honor.

How good of you to remember my interests in your seminar program and best wishes for a successful event. I certainly enjoyed my evening at the Brookings Institution last November.

Sincerely yours,

Bill
